

Leaving your job? Your pet insurance can go with you.

Stay covered, Stay protected.

Keep your MetLife Pet Insurance coverage when you change jobs.

As a MetLife Pet Insurance policyholder, you already know the value of coverage—for everyday care, the big moments and the unexpected surprises that come with pet parenthood.

Portability means you can maintain coverage seamlessly—even when retiring, taking leave or transitioning from your current role.

Although your pet insurance coverage through payroll deduction has ended, you can keep enjoying the protection MetLife pet insurance provides by simply updating your payment method to a credit card, debit card or ACH withdrawal.

Here are some key benefits:

-  Continuity of Coverage: Portability ensures that your pet remains insured without having to restart waiting periods.
-  Enjoy Seamless Coverage: With portability, your claims records and all policy details stay intact, with no changes or revisions to your plan.
-  Confidence in your Coverage: You do not have to worry about losing coverage due to the termination of your employer coverage.
